PART I – DEFINED WORDS AND PHRASES

E. “completed operations hazard” includes personal injury and property damage arising out of the operations or reliance upon a representation or warranty made at any time with respect thereto, but only if the personal injury or property damage occurs after such operations have been completed or abandoned and occurs away from premises owned by or rented to the Insured.

Operations include materials, parts or equipment furnished in connection therewith. Operations shall be deemed completed at the earliest of the following times:

- (1) when all operations to be performed by or on behalf of the Insured under the contract have been completed,
- (2) when all operations to be performed by or on behalf of the Insured at the site of the operations have been completed, or
- (3) when the portion of the work out of which the injury or damage arises has been put to its intended use by any person or organization other than another contractor or subcontractor engaged in performing operations for a principal as a part of the same project.

Operations which may require service or maintenance work, or correction, repair or replacement because of any defect or deficiency, but which are otherwise complete, shall be deemed completed.

The completed operations hazard does not include personal injury or property damage arising out of

- (1) operations in connection with the transportation of property, unless the personal injury or property damage arises out of a condition in or on a vehicle created by the loading or unloading thereof.
- (2) the existence of tools, uninstalled equipment or abandoned or unused materials;

- F. “Insured’s products” means goods or products manufactured, sold, handled or distributed by the insured or by others trading under his name, including any container thereof (other than a vehicle), but Insured’s products shall not include a vending machine or any property other than such container, rented to or located for use of others, but not sold;
- G. “occurrence” means an accident, or a happening or event, or a continuous or repeated exposure to conditions which occurs during the policy period which unexpectedly or unintentionally results in personal injury, property damage or advertising liability. All such exposure to substantially the same general conditions existing at or emanating from one premises location shall be deemed one occurrence;

- I. “products hazard” includes personal injury and property damage arising out of the Insured’s products or reliance upon a representation or warranty made at any time with respect thereto, but only if the personal injury or property damage occurs away from premises owned by or rented to the Insured and after physical possession of such products has been relinquished to others;
- J. “property damage” means (1) physical injury to or destruction of tangible property which occurs during the policy period, including the loss of use thereof at any time resulting therefrom, or (2) loss of use of tangible property which has not been physically injured or destroyed provided such loss of use is caused by an occurrence during the policy period.

45. Pinehurst and Crossmann constructed condominiums at the True Blue Golf & Racquet Resort in Pawleys Island, South Carolina.
46. Upon information and belief, when Beazer began receiving notice of alleged damages to the condominiums in the True Blue Golf & Racquet Resort, Beazer established an investigation and repair protocol for each condominium and has undertaken, and in some instances completed, such repairs.
47. Beazer now seeks reimbursement from Cincinnati, under the Cincinnati Policies, for its costs associated with the aforementioned investigation and repair of the condominiums in the True Blue Golf & Racquet Resort.
48. In November of 2007, Beazer Homes USA, Inc. tendered a claim under the Cincinnati Policies. The claim arises out of Pinehurst and Crossmann's construction of the condominiums at the True Blue Golf & Racquet Resort.
49. The HOA formally notified (the "Notice") Beazer Homes USA, Inc. of alleged construction defects at the True Blue Golf & Racquet Resort on or about September 10, 2008.
50. The Notice alleged various construction defects, including, inter alia, missing fasteners from truss connectors; broken and cut truss members; improper construction and violation of building codes with respect to stair handrails and stair tread depths; improper installation of step flashing; reverse lapping of flashing at roof to wall intersections; and improper installation of the weather barrier at roof to wall intersections. The Notice further stated that the “construction deficiencies and defects” listed “serve to reduce the structural integrity of the buildings, compromise the building envelope functions and have already caused, and continue to cause, water related damage in various areas.”

51. Upon information and belief, on or about September 15, 2008, Beazer sent notice of the alleged construction deficiencies to its vendors and subcontractors who supplied materials and/or performed work at the True Blue Golf & Racquet Resort. This notice stated, inter alia, Beazer intends to continue fulfilling its obligations to unit owners of True Blue Condominiums and to the True Blue HOA to correct construction deficiencies if they are found to be the responsibility of Beazer and/or its subcontractors/vendors. Beazer expects that its subcontractors and vendors will fulfill their contractual obligations, including indemnification, to Beazer. All your prior and current insurers should be notified of this claim, and we are hereby asking that your agent place all known prior and current insurers on notice of this claim.

52. Beazer’s notice to its suppliers and subcontractors indicated that Beazer had spent more than $1.6 million in repair costs at the True Blue Golf & Racquet Resort.

53. Pursuant to the terms of the Cincinnati Policies, CCI was required to maintain primary insurance as indicated on the Schedule of Underlying Policies. In the event CCI did not maintain this “underlying insurance,” the Cincinnati Policies applied as though the “underlying insurance” was in force and collectible.

54. CCI failed to comply with the terms of the Cincinnati Policies because CCI failed to maintain all “underlying insurance” as listed on the Cincinnati Policies’ Schedules of Underlying Policies.

55. Upon information and belief, some primary insurers have settled Beazer's claims against them for less than the policy limits.
56. Because the Cincinnati Policies provide only excess insurance, Cincinnati has no liability where the policy limits of the "underlying insurance" have not been exhausted by the payment of claims.
57. The Cincinnati Policies do not provide insurance coverage to CCI or any other alleged insured when the policy limits of the "underlying insurance" have not been exhausted by the payment of claims.
58. The aforementioned terms, conditions, exclusions and other provisions of the Cincinnati Policies also preclude coverage herein.
59. There is a justiciable controversy existing between the parties, and the parties named as Defendants have or may have an interest in the subject matter of this litigation, in that the resolution of coverage matters may affect the rights and liabilities of Defendants in regard to their exposure to damages which are the subject of the Notice.
60. A dispute exists between Cincinnati and Beazer, Crossmann, Pinehurst, CCI, and any other alleged insured as to whether Beazer, Crossmann, Pinehurst, and/or CCI breached the terms and conditions of the Cincinnati Policies and whether Cincinnati is obligated to: 1) reimburse Beazer, Crossmann, Pinehurst, or CCI for monies Beazer, Crossmann, Pinehurst, or CCI has and/or will in the future expend to investigate and/or repair and remediate condominiums located at the True Blue Golf & Racquet Resort, or 2) defend and/or indemnify Beazer, Crossmann, Pinehurst, or CCI for any pending and potential future claims asserted against Beazer, Crossmann, Pinehurst, or CCI that are alleged to have occurred during the period in which the Cincinnati Policies were in effect.

61. Cincinnati requests and is entitled to a declaration by this Court, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2201 and Rule 57 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, declaring the rights, duties, and obligations of Cincinnati and Beazer, Crossmann, Pinehurst, and CCI pursuant to the Cincinnati Policies, and specifically declaring that Cincinnati is not obligated to 1) reimburse Beazer, Crossmann, Pinehurst, or CCI for monies Beazer, Crossmann, Pinehurst, or CCI has and/or will in the future expend to investigate and/or repair and remediate condominiums located at the True Blue Golf & Racquet Resort, or 2) provide a defense and/or indemnify Beazer, Crossmann, Pinehurst, or CCI for any pending and potential future claims asserted against Beazer, Crossmann, Pinehurst, or CCI that are alleged to have occurred during the period in which the Cincinnati Policies were in effect.

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff, Cincinnati Insurance Company, having fully complained against the Defendants, Crossmann Communities of North Carolina, Inc.; Crossman Communities, Inc.; Beazer Homes Investment Corporation; and True Blue Golf & Racquet Resort Homeowners' Association, Inc., respectfully requests this District Court to enter judgment declaring the Cincinnati is not obligated to: 1) reimburse Beazer, Crossmann, Pinehurst, or CCI for monies Beazer, Crossmann, Pinehurst, or CCI has and/or will in the future expend to investigate and/or repair and remediate condominiums located at the True Blue Golf & Racquet Resort, or 2) provide a defense and/or indemnify Beazer, Crossmann, Pinehurst, or CCI for any pending and potential future claims asserted against Beazer, Crossmann, Pinehurst, or CCI that are alleged to have occurred during the period in which the Cincinnati Policies were in effect. Plaintiff further requests its costs and expenses incurred herein including reasonable attorneys' fees; and any such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Francis M. Mack
